Every body

deserves an ibody[®]

- Ibody latex: a specific solution for both the female- and male body.
-  ibody: an adjusted hip-zone to match your body's contours.
-  ibody: an adapted shoulder-zone for a natural curve.
- Always a natural straight spine.
- Ibody relieves pressure points which results in a quieter and deeper sleep without tossing and turning. A fresh wake-up is assured!
- Ibody latex combines higher density for a perfect support of the spinal column together with extra softness for an intense comfort.
- Ibody is a latex mattress developed by Artilat, worldwide supplier of latex foam products for the bedding industry.
